

Press Release

A publication of the Rural County Representatives of California

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For More Information:
Justin Caporusso
(916) 447-4806
JCaporusso@rcrcnet.org

RCRC Promotes Arthur Wylene to General Counsel

SACRAMENTO, CA – October 15, 2018 – The Rural County Representatives of California (RCRC) announced today the promotion of Arthur Wylene to General Counsel. In his new role, Wylene will be responsible for providing counsel to RCRC and its affiliate entities on a variety of internal matters as well as continuing to provide legal analysis on proposed legislation and regulations. Mr. Wylene previously served as RCRC Governmental Affairs Counsel.

“In addition to his support in the Governmental Affairs Department, Arthur was often pulled into various administrative and economic development matters on behalf of the organization,” said Greg Norton, RCRC President and CEO. “Arthur has been recognized as a tremendous asset to RCRC’s member counties, and expanding his role within RCRC will only enhance the organization’s ability to be effective for our members.”

Prior to joining RCRC, Wylene served as the appointed County Counsel for Tehama County. Wylene is a 2002 graduate of New College of California, School of Law, and a former law clerk for the California Supreme Court. Wylene has received numerous awards and recognition for his work over the years, including RCRC’s inaugural President’s Award in 2014.

ABOUT RURAL COUNTY REPRESENTATIVES OF CALIFORNIA (RCRC)

The Rural County Representatives of California (RCRC) is a thirty-six member county strong service organization that champions policies on behalf of California’s rural counties. RCRC is dedicated to representing the collective unique interests of its membership, providing legislative and regulatory representation at the State and Federal levels, and providing responsible services for its members to enhance and protect the quality of life in rural California counties. To learn more about RCRC, visit rcrcnet.org and follow @RuralCounties on Twitter.

###